

Amended Self-certification on tax residency of legal entity's beneficial owner for CRS

Name of client
Identification No. / ZECO

For the purposes of international exchange of tax information pursuant to the Act no. 164/2013 Coll., on international cooperation in tax administration matters, as amended, and based on global standard CRS (Common Reporting Standard) issued by OECD, I hereby declare the following additional information relating to a financial account (or accounts) at Equa bank a.s. (further referred to as the „Bank“):

Beneficial owner*
Birth number / Date of birth
Country of Tax residency of beneficial owner
Foreign TIN of beneficial owner (Tax identification number issued by the country of tax residency)	<input type="checkbox"/> No Tax identification number has been assigned in the country of tax residency.
Explanation of potential discrepancy between the country of tax residency and permanent address registered at the Bank

In case of multiple beneficial owners, please prepare separate Self-certification with respect to each beneficial owner.*

In addition to the above stated explanation you may also enclose relevant documents proving relationship to the declared country of tax residency (e.g. lease agreement, employment contract etc.).*

Country of tax residency may also be proven by Tax residency certificate issued by competent authority of respective country (e.g. local Tax office in case of the Czech Republic) – no further explanation is necessary in such case.

Tax residency certificate is enclosed

Other attachment is enclosed

I hereby declare that the above stated information is true and complete and I will notify the Bank in case of any further change with respect to the above stated information.

In date